MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: O Contact with AECASSOWARY-27, 11 July 1958

1. Contact was made with AECASSOWARY-27 at 1000 hours on 11 July 1958. The meeting took place in the home of C and was attended by AECASSOWARY-15 and 27, C and the undersigned C.

2. The purpose of the meeting was to introduce AECASSOWARY-27 to with whom AECASSOWARY-27 plans to make contact in Brussels, in the event of any operational developments with regard to contacts with Soviet Ukrainians at the Fair. This also was the first meeting between AECASSOWARY-27 and the undersigned.

3. C gave a general run down regarding the operational atmosphere at the Fair and answered questions raised by AECASSOWARY-27 with reference to the cost of living, types of living quarters available which might prove most convenient and secure, possible suitable locations for operational contacts, etc. AECASSOWARY-27 was given a telephone number and name for purposes of contact with C in Brussels.

4. AECASSOWARY-27 is planning to leave for Brussels on 22 July. He also has applied for a visa to Sweden. He hopes to travel to Stockholm to make personal contact with the mother of Dr. Bohdan Kentrzynski, friend of AECASSOWARY-27. The mother of Dr. Kentrzynski arrived in Sweden from Volynia, UkrSSR about 17 December 1957 together with another son from Poland.

5. AECASSOWARY-27 stated that Dr. Kuzhmak (a medical doctor from Balyhorod, presently in Shanits, where he is head of the local YCKT Ukrainske Social-Cultural Tovarystvo) is expected in Brussels in mid-July 1958. AECASSOWARY-27 stated that they do not have much information on Dr. Kuzhmak except that he is a relative of Dr. Popovich of Belgium. A son of Kuzhmak (who also is a medical doctor in Bytom) will accompany the doctor. The son has promised to take a copy of the UKRAINIAN ENCYCLOPEDIA back with him from Brussels. It is probable that the daughter of Dr. Kuzhmak also will come to the Fair. This information was received in a letter dated 29 June 1958.
